800 WOMEN WORKING IN RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Letter Carriers' Division Reporting
Thousands of New Members Daily.

Reports from the Red Cross roll call headquarters late yesterday show fine results for the enrollment thus far. No figures have been compiled, and it will not be possible to estimate the actual results for several days.

The letter carriers' division reports thousands of memberships every day, and the women's division has been turning in memberships by the hundreds since it started work Saturday morning. It also is stated unofficially at headquarters that there is an unusually large number of 100 per cent enrollments for mercantile concerns as well as clubs and other organizations. The names of these organizations were not announced.

The busiest part of the headquarters' office yesterday was the treasurer's desk, where people were turning in their roll call lists and their money. Women came in by the half dozens near the closing hour, after having ended the day's business at their public building booths, and many of the captains of teams in the business men's division were there with their returns. The business men's division has almost completed its assignment, and will be ready to act as a reserve corps for the other divisions in case of need. The industries division also reported a large part of its work accomplished but results cannot be computed until lists left with the heads of the big industrial concerns are turned in. This will not be before the end of the week.

Twenty-seven different women's organizations are represented in the women's division, which embraces, including the emergency corps, about 800 women.

KIWANIS CLUB CONVENTION CLOSES TONIGHT WITH BANQUET

Organization Now One of Strongest on Continent With 341 Clubs and 36,000 Members.

In six years Kiwanis has become one of the strongest organizations of business and professional men of the North American Continent, there being 341 clubs with 36,000 members, representing virtually every line of business, according to Samuel Cummings, international secretary, who spoke yesterday to delegates attending the two-day convention of the Missouri-Kansas District Kiwanis club at the Planters Hotel. The convention closes tonight with a banquet.

H. H. Platt, the Kansas City representative at the convention, also was a speaker at the opening session, pointing out that the Kiwanis organization had been one of the most potent factors in combatting the influences of class structures, which have arisen in the last few years, because of the ideals of service, fairness and constructive business principles of the different clubs.

From Kansas, Parsons, Lawrence and Independence have representatives at the convention, while from Missouri, Kansas City, Joplin, St. Joseph, Springfield, Kirksville and St. Louis are represented. Mayor Kiel delivered the address of welcome. The delegates were entertained at a noon luncheon, and last night a theater party was given in their honor. An automobile trip through the parks, residential and industrial districts is a feature of the program this afternoon.

Get 7 Per Cent With Real Safety By Investing in Missouri's Safest 7% Dividend Payer, Union Electric Preferred Stock: $100 a Share for Cash: $102 on a 10-Payment Plan

Union Electric, financing its growth in part here at home, gives home investors a chance to share its profits by buying shares of its 7% preferred stock.

This stock pays $7 a year in cash income on each $100 share—$1.75 every three months.

Backed by MORE than $100 worth of State-appraised, State-regulated income-producing property for each $100 share, this stock is always intrinsically worth what it costs.

Its income is protected by net earnings several times larger than the sum needed to pay the Company's preferred dividends.

We recommend this investment especially to small investors who want a BUSINESS income from their savings, with safety for their principal.

Let us send a salesman to explain this offer in detail. Just telephone our Securities Dept., Union Electric Bldg., 12th and Locust Sts., St. Louis, or mail us your name and address on the lines below.

Keeping Your Daily Needs Supplied Is an Ever-Present Problem, and Now With Christmas Gifts to Buy; This Institution Can Be More Helpful Than Ever

—And here is Thanksgiving Day at your very door. Most every requirement for this occasion can be supplied here.

Items of Interest

A Decorated Break- fast-Room Set

—is of beautifully finished wood in deep antique ivory with the cleverest designs hand-painted in forest green. A charming round table with four side chairs and two roomy armchairs complete this set. It is so sturdily built and its finish will not show small finger marks, that it would be a very practical selection for a home where there are kiddies. You will like the quaint, flag-bombed chairs, which are very durable.

Furniture Shop—Fifth Floor.

A Tribute to Mother

"SHE loved when the world was against you;
She hoped when your hope sank and died;
She clung to your hand when the clinging
Left scars in her heart, deep and wide."

This pretty sentiment is one of three verses, topped by a beautiful picture of a baby with mother, and appropriately framed in a dull silver frame. A charming gift hint.

Art Shop—Fourth Floor.

Something to Read Aloud

TODAY I heard a woman who was browsing 'round our delightful book shop say: "We wanted something to read aloud last night and there wasn't a thing in the house." Don't let this contingency arise. We offer you Fiction, Essays, Travel, Biography or anything your family might prefer.

LAWYER ASKS JUROR TO TAKE UP MURDER CASE

No Grand Jury Inquiry Yet Into Killing at Roadhouse Near Chicago in August.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The Cook County grand jury on Wednesday will take up the records and evidence in the case of Gerald A. Stack, wealthy grain broker of Lander, Wyo., held for the killing of Paul Brown, 3425 Smalley court, in a brawl at Bert Kelley's "Bungalow Inn" at Niles, Ill., last August. Stack is a frequent visitor to St. Louis, where he has a wide acquaintance on the Merchants' Exchange.

The jury is determined to find out what the matter has not been submitted to it and also why it was not presented to either the September or October grand juries. Stack was held to the grand jury on a charge of manslaughter by a coroner's jury on Sept. 3, with a recommendation that he be admitted to bail. A cash bond of $10,000 was accepted by Judge Crowe.

Attorney John S. Hall, representing the foster parents of the dead youth, declares he has consulted with the State's Attorney's office on at least 30 occasions. Each time he was told, he says, that it would be taken up very soon. Despairing of the State's assistance, he said, he caused the matter to be broached to a member of the grand jury.

"All we are seeking is justice," said Hall. "A wealthy man comes to town, is entertained by prominent Board of Trade men, kills a man, puts up a cash bond, goes home and the charge is allowed to drag along waiting for it to be forgotten."

Stack, who is married and the father of five children, accompanied George Harsh, member of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange to Chicago. Harsh was seeking to become a member of the Board of Trade. Henry G. Garneau, a grain broker, and Charles P. Gerity, paper merchant, invited the visitors to a party. Four girls were invited and all motored to the Bungalow Inn. It was admitted that all were drinking. Words were said to have been passed with a party in the next booth, but no blows were struck and finally the Brown party prepared to leave. When in their automobile Brown decided to go back for cigarettes. At the cigar counter he met Stack. It was claimed he insulted Stack's woman companion. Testimony was to the effect that Stack, who is a head taller than Brown, pulled out his automatic pistol and hit Brown over the head several times, then fired four shots.

All witnesses declared Brown did not strike Stack. Brown died in a few moments.

TESTIMONY HEARD ON CHARGES BY MISS ALICE MARTIN

Judge to Give Decision Saturday in Action Against Mrs. Joseph Maserang on Scandal Charge.

WOMAN TELLS OF REMARKS IN HOME

Neighbor Says Druggist's Wife Visited Her—Defendant Says She Repeated What She Heard on Car.

Testimony in the case of Mrs. Joseph Maserang, 4504 Westminster place, wife of a druggist at Taylor avenue and Olive street, charged with committing criminal slander upon Miss Alice Martin, a dancing teacher, was heard in Judge Miller's division of the Court of Criminal Correction this morning. At the conclusion Judge Miller announced that he would take the case under advisement and announce his decision Saturday morning.

Miss Martin's studio is at 4365 Olive street, opposite the Maserang drug store, but the evidence showed that the two women had never met. The slander was alleged to have been communicated by Mrs. Maserang to Mrs. Henry Weisels, 4545 Westminster, a neighbor.

Witness Tells of Remarks. Mrs. Weisels was the first witness. She said that Mrs. Maserang called at her home in October or November of last year and made certain remarks about Miss Martin. She gave over the objection of Mrs. Maserang's attorney, what she understood Mrs. Maserang to mean. In reply to a question by Mrs. Maserang's lawyer, Mrs. Weisels said she told Harry Turner, editor and publisher of "Much Ado," a fortnightly publication, what Mrs. Maserang had said to her. She said Turner declared that the report was "an organized lie, circulated because of envy and jealousy over the success Miss Martin had enjoyed in teaching small children."

Mrs. Weisels said Turner asked her if she would do what she could to aid Miss Martin in protecting her reputation in the matter. Turner was in the courtroom as a spectator.

Letters Introduced. A letter which Miss Martin's secretary wrote to Mrs. Maserang, asking her if she had been correctly quoted, and Mrs. Maserang's reply to it, were introduced as evidence. The

GROWING DEAF WITH HEAD NOISES? TRY THIS

If you are growing deaf of hearing and fear Catarrhal Tonsillitis, or if you have running, rumbling, humming noises in your ears, go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmit (double strength) and add to it a pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day.

This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Cleared nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dropping to the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Anyone who is threatened with Catarrhal Tonsillitis or who has head noises should give this preparation a trial.

COMRADE OF SLAIN MAN IDENTIFIED AS ROBBER

Bernard Manning Said to Have Held Up Saloon 3 Hours Before Shooting in Another.

Bernard Manning, 31 years old, of 2514 South Tenth street, who was with John Helwig, 27, of 3003 Missouri avenue, when the latter was shot and killed at 1 o'clock yesterday morning by Albert Mueller, 34, in Mueller's saloon at 5611 South Broadway, was identified last evening as the lone highwayman who held up five men in the saloon of John Cicerich at 2800 South Eighteenth street at 10 o'clock Sunday night.

Mueller, a former inspector in the Street Department, as has been stated, told the police that he was shooting at Manning when one of his bullets hit Helwig. Mueller said that the two men had driven to his saloon in an automobile and that after they had ordered several drinks Manning asked him for $10 to pay a taxi bill. When he refused to give the money, he said, Manning drew a revolver and told him that he would have to pay the bill or hand over all the money he had. Manning snapped the trigger twice, Mueller said, and the latter got his own revolver from beneath the bar and began firing. He said he fired several shots and that when Helwig fell Manning ran from the saloon. Manning later surrendered to the police.

Cicerich, Adolph Kull of 3622 California avenue and Erwin, 2327 California avenue, interviewed Manning at the Carondelet Police Station, and said they were sure that he was the man who held them up in Cicerich's saloon three hours before the shooting in Mueller's saloon. Cicerich said that $15 was taken from his cash register and $6 from his trousers pocket. The customers saved their money by throwing it into a dark corner while the robber was at the cash register.

The robber escaped, they said, in an automobile in which a second man was waiting for him in front of the saloon. Manning refused to comment on the identification, the police said.

HACKETT 'GREATEST MACBETH OF MEMORY,' LONDON PAPER SA

It Asserts That in Career of English Stage at Its Best He Had No Superior.
Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.
LONDON, Nov. 22.—Of James K. Hackett's eminent success here, the London Catholic Herald says: "Mr. James K. Hackett, who is at present appearing in the title role in 'Macbeth,' at the Aldwych Theatre, is the lion of the hour in London theatrical circles and rightly so." It is generally admitted by the critics that he is the greatest "Macbeth" within living memory. The London press, with a unanimity, imposing as it is rare, subscribe to this opinion.

"To see him is as much a play-going landmark in a man's life as was Sir Johnson. Forbes-Robertson's 'Hamlet,' Martin Harvey's 'Sydney Carton' or Sir Henry Irving's remarkable performance of a couple of decades ago in 'The Bells.' He is one of the high peaks in the theatrical profession and no man anxious to preserve the continuity of his historical theatrical experiences will miss this opportunity of enriching his treasure house of happy memories."

"In the career of the English stage at its best, Mr. Hackett had no superior; in what today may be considered its decadence, he has no equal."

SATIRE ON MEDICINE GOES WELL AT ORPHEUM

"Pint Size" Comedian Gets "In Personal Touch" With His Audience.

Dancer Hurts Ankle.

Kenny and Hollis, who stage what they entitle a satire on medicine, admit that they furnish the best act on the Orpheum bill this week. They so inform the audience, and although they do not occupy the place of honor on the bill, their performance "went over" well enough yesterday to give them a claim to recognition.

Prior to their comedy, Frances Pritchard staged a casualty when she sprained her ankle after dancing only a few steps. She was carried off stage by one of her partners. The male pair of the act, Edward Tierney and James Donnelly, put on imitations of George Primrose, Ruth St. Denis and others under distinct disadvantages. Announcement was made later that the dancer probably will be able to go on today or tomorrow, although she may not be able to perform in her solo part for a time.

Joe Laurie, who entitles himself the "pint size" comedian, follows out the idea he adopted from Raymond Hitchcock some time ago of getting "in personal touch" with his hearers. Bee Palmer, declared to have been one of those who put the shimmy on the map, is accompanied by a jazz outfit. Both in advance notices and in a sort of recitative prelude, the audience had been informed that the young woman's mission was to show that the shimmy could be produced in a manner really "nice." The ripplings and undulations of Miss Palmer were of a conservative order.

Sylvia Loyd opened the bill with a trained pigeon display and Dave Harris followed with a song and dance act. George Kelley's one-act playlet, with a company of five, was a clever skit in which a clergyman is won over to change his views toward the stage. Little Jewel Faulkner concluded the program with a miniature revue by marionettes, including a baseball scene with the puppets as players.

STANFORD GIRL SMOKERS AND GAMBLERS ADVISED 'TO GET OUT'

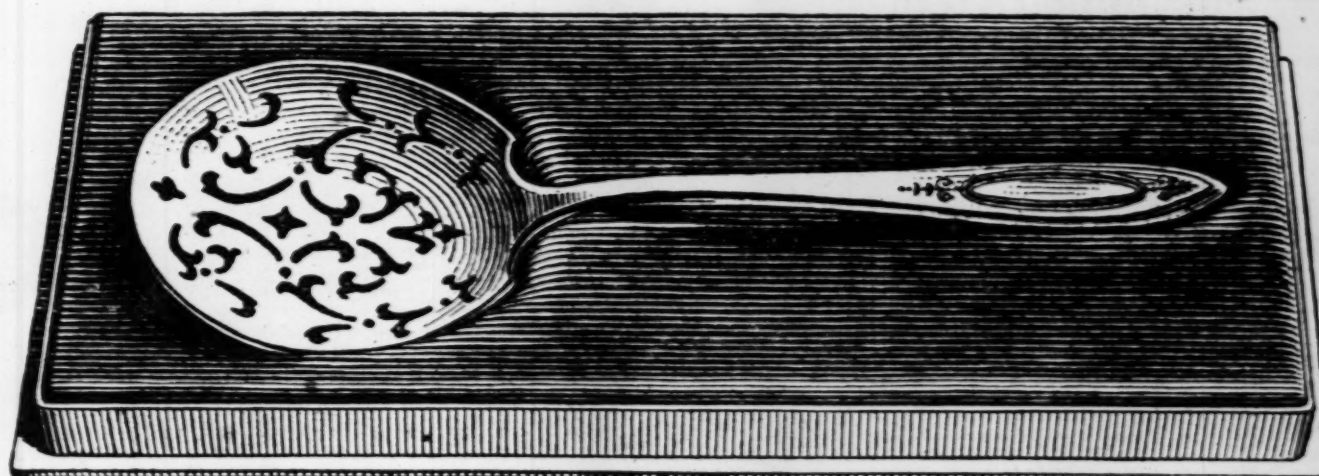

Student Declares "Dice Shooting" Habit Won't "Get By" With Mass. of University Women. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Stanford University girl students who are violating the university regulations by smoking and shooting dice on the campus are advised "to get out—the sooner the better," by Miss Florence Hocking of the class of 1922 in a recent issue of the Stanford Pictorial, a campus magazine of student opinion.

Smoking and gambling habits, which she declares have infected a large number of Stanford girls, will not be tolerated by the mass of women students, she says. "The women should be reminded that they will be expelled immediately if caught smoking, and this verdict will be upheld by the women of the university," Miss Hocking declares. "You just can't do it. It doesn't get by."

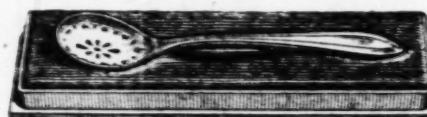

Miss Hocking charges that there is one woman who can "clean up the hall in a few minutes" and it is rumored that she can defeat some of the variety fingers in "rummy" bones. Stanford girl students at Hall, the women's dormitory, have a resolution of protest following publication of the article, which that Miss Hocking charges are based on rumors, that they have been exaggerated and that the low stains on dainty fingers are due to adds from the chemical laboratories and not to cigarettes. The Women's Council, the executive body of the women students, denies Miss Hocking's accusations and has demanded a retraction of the charges.

"THE PILGRIM AND THE BOOK" BY MACKAYE

Volume Is a Dramatic Service for Use in Churches in Observance of Tercentenary.

"The Pilgrim and the Book," a dramatic service for use in churches in the observance of the Tercentenary of the Landing of the Pilgrims, has been written by Percy Mackaye, and is published by the American Bible Society. Permission is granted to church, school and Sunday-school organizations to use the service, provided that no charge is made for admission.

Mackaye, who is the best known of American writers in the field of pageantry and masque writing, and who was the author of the Masque of St. Louis, performed here in 1914, has used the basic idea of the masque in this work. "The Pilgrim and the Book" is a representation of the spiritual struggles of the Pilgrim Fathers.

The characters represented are The Pilgrim; Satan, the Spirit of Evil; and Revelation, who speak in rhymed verse. The other speaking characters are spokesmen of the Bible, and speak only in Biblical phrases. They are Moses, David, Elijah, the Angel of the Star, St. John, St. Paul, the Spirit of the Old Testament, and the Spirit of the New Testament. Groups which appear in choral numbers are the Psalms, Prophets, Shepherds, Disciples and Apostles. The congregation has an active part in the singing.

Ten hymns are provided, of which four have words written by Mackaye. The others are familiar hymns, and the Mackaye lyrics are set to hymnbook tunes. The opening song by the congregation is Mrs. Hemans' "The Breaking Waves Dashed High." The service is intended for presentation in churches. An evening hour is preferable. The Pilgrim, who appears in the costume of Mayflower days, bearing his Book. He is overtaken by Satan and the Spirit of Persecution, and the Book is torn from him, while he is bound. He is set free by the Spirit of Revelation, which restores the Book to him. The messages of the Old Testament are recited for his encouragement, but he is again overtaken, this time by the Fear of Death. From this antagonist he is freed by the message of the New Testament. The closing song, by the congregation, is "How Firm a Foundation, Ye Saints of the Lord."

The American Bible Society is endeavoring to promote the observance of Sunday, Nov. 28, as Mayflower Bible Sunday, in honor of the Pilgrim Fathers.

GRADUATE OF '58 FINDS NEW ORDER AT M. U.

John W. Harrison, on First Return Visit to Columbia, Is Astounded at Changes.

Things changed some during the 42 years that elapsed between the graduation of John W. Harrison from the University of Missouri and his first return visit there, a few days ago. Harrison, who now is 51 years old, and who lives at 5117 Warman avenue, found that nearly all the old buildings with which his memories were associated, had disappeared, so that he could hardly recognize Columbia as the same town. He is the oldest living graduate of the university, and it was the first time he had been there since 1858.

Other changes than the buildings had changed, too. The good old days, when he paid $2.75 a week for room and board—and lived at the time—also belong to the past. Instead of a few dirt roads traversed occasionally by a solitary horseman, he found paved streets on which automobiles left no room for solitary or any other kind of horseman.

On the grounds where he had once played town hall he found what were, to him, a new set of buildings, but students and residents referred to them as "the old campus," and advised him to visit "the new campus," a distance away, where stand the third generation of college buildings.

"It certainly was different," Harrison said yesterday to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "When I first went to the university, I rode horseback from my home in Glasgow, Mo. Fewer than 1500 people lived in Columbia, and the university had 130 students. I remember writing to my father complaining of the exorbitant price—$2.10 a week, which I had to pay for room and board."

"Money was very scarce, and students used tobacco, flour and other commodities from their father's farms to pay their bills, excepting tuition, which had to be paid in money. There was no such thing as collegiate athletics in those days. About the only game we played was town ball, somewhat similar to baseball."

"During the Civil War, Harrison was a Major in the Union Army, and was assigned to the command of an iron foundry at Ironville, Mo., which was making supplies for the military forces. He related with some relish an incident that occurred during that period. An army Major came to demand some guards about the plant, and, without making inquiry, ordered Harrison under arrest as a "suspicious character." He was displayed to learn that Harrison was his senior officer, and the one from whom he received his instructions.

"Harrison has been in the iron business for many years. He was connected with the Shickel, Harrison and Howard Iron Co., and later became sole owner. He has retired from active business.

Cox Carried Kentucky by 4017.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—An announcement of the official tabulation of the returns in the recent election today showed that Gov. Cox carried Kentucky by only 4017. The vote was: Cox 455,497. Harding 453,480. All the Democratic electors were victorious.

French Ambassador Returns.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Jean Jules Jusserand, French Ambassador to the United States, arrived today on the steamship La Sante after a stay of several months abroad.

The Ambassador left here July 23 for a vacation which was interrupted when he was sent to Warsaw as a member of the French mission.

MRS. BOSTWICK GETS DIVORCE AND ALIMONY

Custody of Child Given Her; A. Linn Bostwick Not Present at Hearing.

Mrs. Margaret Bostwick of 4943 Laclede avenue yesterday obtained a divorce from A. Linn Bostwick, statistician for the Simmons Hardware Co., whom she married at Washington, D. C., two years ago. She got custody of their child, Theoline, 11 months old, and $75 a month alimony.

Mrs. Bostwick was Miss Margaret McKittick Jones, daughter of William Victor Jones of Robert McKittick Jones & Co., who resides at the Racquet Club. Bostwick is a son of Public Librarian Arthur E. Bostwick of 14 North King's highway.

In her petition for divorce, filed last Friday, Mrs. Bostwick alleged that her husband refused to take any interest in domestic affairs and that he would not return home until late at night. When he was about the house he ignored her, she said. Bostwick made formal denial of the charges. He entered his appearance in the suit, but did not attend court. The trial was brief. The couple separated recently.

Bostwick was connected with the War Industries Board of the Council of National Defense during the war and the couple resided in Washington for a time after they were married. Mrs. Bostwick studied at the School of Fine and Applied Arts in New York City in the winter before her marriage.

INQUIRY INTO KILLING OF MAN
BY PROHIBITION AGENT BEGUN

Special Agents Investigating Officer's Indictment After Shooting at Madison, Ill.

A. A. Young and David Nolan, special agents of the Intelligence Department of the Internal Revenue Department, today began an investigation at the Federal Building here of the killing of Luke Vukovich in his home at Madison, Ill., by S. Glenn Young, an East St. Louis prohibition enforcement agent, on Nov. 6. Young was indicted by the Madison County grand jury on a charge of murder.

The special agents from Washington said they were here to question Young and other witnesses who already have testified before the Coroner and grand jury in Madison County, and subpoenas have been issued for their appearance at the hearing. The hearing is not to be open to the public, as the testimony is for the information of the department only.

HIGH TIDE DOES DAMAGE
ON WATERFRONT IN BOSTON

Trucks Washed Out, Houses Flooded and Pier and Century-Old Landmark Destroyed.

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—A tide, which, backed by an easterly gale, attained a rise of 12 feet, ran over wharves on the waterfront today, brought confusion to shipping at anchor and caused washouts on railroad tracks along the shore. It was the highest tide of the year, and the stiffest gale. The wind reached a velocity of 40 miles an hour on harbor gauges, and came freighted with rain. Only three vessels approached the port during the forenoon, and none of these could dock.

Rowboats displaced automobiles as conveyances on Winthrop thoroughfares. The sea broke over the wall there, the waves reaching a height of 40 feet. Houses were flooded. At Winthrop Beach a new pier was destroyed, and conditions were so bad that school sessions were abandoned. A warehouse, which has been a landmark at Fort Beach, Marblehead, for nearly a century, was blown down.

GEN. TOWNSEND ELECTED TO SEAT IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Gen. Charles V. F. Townsend, hero of the 147th day's siege of Kut-el-Amara, is to have a chance to settle old scores with the War Office, having been elected to the House of Commons in the Wrekin district. He ran as an independent and extreme Nationalist, a Laborite, by 4900 votes. The district was carried by the coalition in the general election by only 540.

Gen. Townsend recently resigned from the army, charging that the present heads of the War Office had persecuted him in spite of his great services, in the siege of Kut and in bringing about the surrender of Turkey. He asserted that his campaign in Mesopotamia had been misrepresented in order to cover the faults of others.

His designation as Independent means that he is first a supporter of John Bull and extreme Nationalist; secondly, he will press the claims of unemployed ex-army men, and, thirdly, he will uphold the coalition Government.

PLAN TO DEPORT 16 MEXICANS Followers of Villa in Columbus Raid Pardoned From Prison.

EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 23.—A party of immigration service officers have gone to Santa Fe, N. M., where they will take into custody the 16 Mexican prisoners pardoned yesterday by Gov. Larrea. Supervising Inspector F. W. Berkshire announced that deportation proceedings against the men will be instituted.

The 16 were followers of Francisco Villa, and had been sentenced to the New Mexico Penitentiary for life for participation in the historic raid across the border on Columbus, N. M., in 1916. All but one had pleaded guilty of second-degree murder. The Governor said the men were largely ignorant and had acted under compulsion.

I won't carry throat germs to those at home

All day long—in the office or shop, in the cars, the crowded stores—you have been breathing in germs of sore throat, tonsillitis, influenza, what-not. In the warm crevices of throat and mouth they multiply with incredible speed.

Perhaps you are in rugged health and they find no weakened spot to attack. But what of those at home? They may be unable to resist these armies of ill-health and the home-coming kiss may bear the dread germs of disease.

A pleasant—almost candy-like—Formamint dissolved in the mouth now and then during the day makes the mouth fluids antiseptic, keeps germ-growth within bounds, and forms a strong defense against disease.

If the throat is already sore, the frequent use of Formamint keeps the membranes bathed in this splendid antiseptic, allays inflammation, prevents new infection and gives the tissues a chance to heal.

Children are glad to use them and should do so freely, as crowded school-rooms are fruitful fields for the spread of throat infection.

Formamint is sold by all druggists. Any druggist will tell you how widely Formamint is recommended by throat specialists, physicians and dentists.

HAITI'S PRESIDENT SAYS U. S. FAILS TO CARRY OUT TREATY

Assails American Minister and Financial Adviser, Declaring Their Rule Is Oppressive.

CHARGES SALARIES ARE CONFISCATED

Tells of Employment of Rat Catchers at $250 a Month When There Was No Need of Them.

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Nov. 13.—

The American civil administration in Haiti is "more oppressive than the military," President d'Artigueve declared in a 2000-word statement made today attacking the public service of Minister Blanchard and John McAlhenny, financial adviser of the black republic.

The President charged that since American occupation no effective aid had been given Haiti for development of its agricultural and industrial resources, as stipulated in the treaty, and that no serious measure had been proposed with a view to "placing Haiti's finances on a treaty solid basis."

McAlhenny is in Washington and the Minister declined to be seen. Calling attention to the fact that the financial adviser, as named by him on the proposal of President Vilson, is in effect a Haitian official who is paid $10,000 a year from Haitian funds, the President said:

"In reality the financial adviser does not report to the Haitian Government; it is the Haitian Government that he pretends to submit to his sovereign will. The facts are numerous which show the omnipotence which the financial adviser attributes to himself."

"Salaries Confiscated." "Nothing can give a more striking idea of this omnipotence than the confiscation by the financial adviser, aided by the American Minister of the salaries of the President of the republic, the Secretaries of State, members of the Legislative Council, because the Government refused to insert in the contract of the National Bank of Haiti, an establishment controlled by the National City Bank of New York, a clause prohibiting the importation into Haiti of foreign gold, which the adviser wished to impose. This (adviser) equally prevented a vote of the budget, contrary to the voice of the Haitian Constitution."

The financial adviser, the President asserted, has made no inquiry into the validity of Haitian debts, has recommended no perfected method of banking the revenues, and made no recommendation for the welfare and prosperity of the republic. In the face of "the inertia of the financial adviser," the Government multiplied its efforts, according to the President, who charged:

"The numerous financial projects, agricultural, educational, administrative and rural organization, meet the opposition of the American officials or lie without response, in the archives of the American legation."

Admitting that his own proposals were not perfect, the President complained because the civil functionaries failed to propose modifications of substitutes. After his plans had been turned down the President said this happened:

"And it is in the name of the Government of the United States that the American Minister comes each time to impose on the Government and the Haitian people the requirements least commendable of the American officials, paid for with Haitian money. If the Government refuses, the worst humiliations are inflicted."

"Hopes for Co-Operation." One of the charges made by the President was that a single "operation" by the financial adviser had cost the people of Haiti the loss of several million francs, referring to "the unhappy operation which he conducted last year for the accounts of the republic, 'despite' contrary instructions by the Haitian Government, he having converted into francs 1,000,000 American dollars."

"For the best interests of Haiti," explained in conversation, in October, 1919, just at the moment when the tendency of the franc to fall was the most marked, at the exchange of nine francs and a fraction for one dollar, while shortly afterward the dollar was valued at about 17 francs. This caused us a loss of several million francs."

A rat-killing incident was mentioned by the President to show how Haitian money was spent. After the discovery of two cases of plague at New Orleans, the financial adviser, in Washington, employed two rat catchers at $50 a month each for Port au Prince, said the President, "which city has never known the malady."

The State Department, absorbed, no doubt, by more important questions of exterior policies, or badly informed by its official agents, close its ears to our protestations or simply gives right (approval) to the American officials," the President says.

Palestine Cable Censorship Off. NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Censorship restrictions on cable messages from Palestine, which have been effective since July, 1919, have been lifted by the British Government, the Commercial Cable Co. announces.

REASONS GIVEN FOR THANKFUL BUSINESS SPIRIT

Dr. Ivan Lee Holt, Rabbi
Leon Harrison and Rev.
Father W. F. Robison Speak Before Ad Club.

"LAST 5 YEARS BEST FOR SAVING"

Father Robinson Declares
There Is a Growing Soundness of Relation Between Labor and Capital.

"What Business Has to Be Thankful For" was the theme discussed by Dr. Ivan Lee Holt of St. John's
Methodist Church, Rabbi Leon Harrison of Temple Israel and Rev.
Father W. F. Robison, president of St. Louis University, at the annual Thanksgiving luncheon of the Advertising Club at Hotel Statler today.

Dr. Holt called attention to the fact that the exports of the United States this year have amounted to $5,500,000,000, as against $1,500,000,000
in 1914, the sales of state and municipal bonds for ten months ending Oct. 31 were $520,000,000, as against $534,000,000 last year, and $200,000,000 better than any preceding year, and that there were $15,000,000 worth of cattle in Chicago
markets last week.

He said that statistics showed that more money had been saved in the last five years than in any similar period of our history, and that there are 1200 new millionaires who have made their fortunes in this period.

America, he said, should be thankful not only for its natural resources and its opportunity for trade with the world, but should be grateful for the courage Americans have inherited from their American ancestry.

Father Robison said there had been an awakening on the part of business men to the vital necessity of sounder relations between labor and capital. Much remains to be accomplished, he said, before these two forces cease from antagonism and co-operate in a brotherly spirit.

"The business world should be thankful too," he added, "for the sound sense of the American people which has, in the main, stood against the devastating inroads of socialism and Bolshevism. To one who grasps
the full dignity of human nature, who sees the true nature of these vagaries built upon the shirking sands of passion, who glimpses the utter chaos and unspeakable desolation of the abyss to which their adherents are rushing, the stand of American business and of the American against the red flag is a cause
of heartfelt thanksgiving."

In connection with the campaign
inaugurated by the Advertising Club to co-operate with business men, an invitation was extended to employers and business men to attend the luncheon.

SEPTEMBER GASOLINE OUTPUT

Daily Average of 15,000,000 Gallons
Eclipsed All Records.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—All gasoline output records were broken
during September, the Bureau of Mines announced yesterday. Refineries produced a daily average of 15,000,000 gallons, making the output total for the first nine months of 1920 3,500,000,000 gallons, as compared with 2,900,000,000 gallons during the same period in 1919.

Consumption and exports continued high, however, the bureau said,
so that while storage tanks on Sept.
3 held 284,000,000 gallons, 100
amount on hand then was actually less than that on hand Aug. 30.

Exports for the first nine months of 1920 amounted to 445,419,992 gallons, almost 200,000,000 more than was sent abroad during the same period in 1919.

COMMENDS BURGLAR'S SLAYER

By the Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 23.—A verdict commending the bravery and efficiency of D. L. Parsons, a bank official, and his wife, in killing a burglar was returned by a Coroner's jury here yesterday. The shooting took place Oct. 21. Parsons and his wife returned home late at night and discovered someone in the house. Obtaining two revolvers from his motor car, Parsons gave one to his wife, who shot the burglar in the back. Parsons then shot the burglar in the front door. Parsons and his wife then returned to the house and Parsons stationed himself in the back yard. The intruder ran down the back steps, spied Parsons in the dim light and began shooting at him.
Parsons shot and the man fell, fatally wounded.

The verdict recommended "light treatment" in the case for "the good of the city and the safety of citizenship."

PUBLIC FUNERAL FOR 14 OFFICERS

Services to Be Held in London for Men Slain in Dublin.
By the Associated Press.
LONDON, Nov. 23.—A public funeral will be held in London for the 14 British officers assassinated in Dublin Sunday morning. It was announced today.

A destroyer left for Dublin today
to bring the bodies to England.

PLANNED TO ASSASSINATE HARA

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, Nov. 23.—An attempt to assassinate Premier Hara was to be made on May 8 last, it is disclosed by the publication of the findings of a preliminary court, which tried a former artilleryman named Ito, who was charged with planning an attempt against the Premier's person with seven bombs.

Ito was hostile to the present cabinet, it was asserted, and came to Tokio, where he bought a revolver and explosives. He made the bombs out of four whisky bottles and three cardboard boxes, but was knocked down accidentally by an automobile, and the police discovered the infernal machine and unraveled the plot.

COMMITTEE NAMED TO FORM NEW CODE OF AUTO LAWS

Storage Battery Trade Association
Take Action Following an Address by Harry G. Mook. A committee of four to take part in the work now in progress of formulating a new code of automobile laws in Missouri was appointed by the St. Louis Storage Battery Trade Association at a meeting last night at the American Annex, following an address by Harry G. Mook, manager of the National Automobile Dealers' Association, in which he urged that automobile interests
should participate in politics.

Mook pointed out that Governor-Elect Hyde was the first automobile man to be elected to an important political office, and said that laws affecting automobiles would form an important part of legislation next year. He advised that all automobile associations take an active part in the proceedings.

ROBBERS GET $663 AND RING VALUED AT $150 FROM SAFE

Thieves Enter Office of Cleaning Company by Rear Window and Break the Combination. Safe robbers got $663.30 in cash, checks for $375.80 and a diamond ring valued at $150 from the office of Himeles Brothers, cleaners and dyers, 5157 Easton avenue, between 5 and 7 o'clock this morning. The robbers gained entrance by prying iron bars from a rear window. They used a sledge hammer on the combination of the outer door of the safe and then battered open the inner door. The hammer was left in the office. A policeman who inspected the premises at 5 a. m., reported that the doors and windows were intact at that time. The burglary was discovered by Samuel Himeles, one of the proprietors, when he opened up for business at 7 a. m. Himeles told the police that the checks were injured by the firm yesterday afternoon preparatory to being sent to bank early today.

Fined $100 for Beating Pupil. By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Floyd T. Goodier, Superintendent of Schools in Chicago Heights, yesterday was fined $100 and costs for beating Russell Healy, 12-year-old pupil, with a rubber hose. He was found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon.

THREE MORE NORTH DAKOTA BANKS CLOSED, MAKING NINE

Failure of Farmers to Meet Notes, After Having Short Crops, Advanced as One Reason. By the Associated Press. BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 23.—Three more banks were added yesterday to the string of North Dakota financial institutions that have closed their doors in the last six days, due to the depletion of their reserves, which officials say is in part due to failure of farmers to meet notes held by the banks. The Farmers' State Bank of Bellevue, the State Bank of Killdeer and the Security Bank at Columbus closed today, making nine since the first of last week. O. E. Loftis, State Bank Examiner, declared that crop failures or short crops, together with depreciations in land and the holding of wheat by farmers for higher prices, was responsible for the closures, as farmers have no funds to meet their obligations at banks. In many instances, it was pointed out by local bankers, the demand on the banks is due to the fact that certificates of deposit, given in the purchase of farmers' notes, now are falling due. Until the farmers meet the notes, the banks are not expected to be able to meet the certificates of deposit.

PRESERVATION OF PARK'S NATURAL BEAUTY URGED

F. L. Rand Objects to Artificial Improvement in Forest Park at Expense of Woodland.

CITES ARTICLE ON DES MOINES

Says Other Cities North and East Are in Movement to Keep Park Properties in Virgin State.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—An announcement that the resources and activities of the Rockefeller Foundation will hereafter be applied exclusively to a world-wide program of public health and medical education marks the development of the basic principle of the foundation work—namely, to help others to help themselves.

The foundation was not designed as a charity to be perpetuated, but the purpose has been to make it an agency of demonstration whereby communities or larger areas of population might be taught how to rid themselves of the affliction of poverty and recurrent forms of disease.

Having taught the lesson, the foundation has always proposed to retire from the field, having stipulated in advance that thereafter the beneficiaries should keep themselves clean of pest without the foundation's help. The work thus assumes the aspect of a philosophy.

Main features of the program for which the foundation supplies funds comprise the work of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, the International Health Board, the Investigation of Industrial Relations and the China Medical Board.

War relief work, which embraced co-operation with the Red Cross over the fighting zone of Europe, has practically ceased except in France, where a vigorous anti-tuberculosis campaign still progresses. The battle against the hookworm and other diseases continues as before in Northern Africa, and has been extended to the west coast of Africa. It continues in Ceylon.

Work of Education Board.
The work does not consist of the Rockefeller Institute for assisting countries, professors and general educational projects the board being co-operated with the foundation and subsidiary. Promotion of practical farming in the South, development of a system of public high schools in the same region, promotion of higher education throughout the country, development of negro education, rural education and research are embraced in it. The purpose of the foundation is, in the words of the charter, "to help the well-being of mankind throughout the world."

Here is the summary of appropriations for foundation work to the time of the last annual report.

Airid refuge in Louisiana, $212,500.
American Red Cross, toward permanent headquarters, commemorating the service of women in caring for the sick and wounded of the Civil War, $100,000.
American Academy in Rome, $10,000 a year for 10 years from 1914, $100,000.
Foreign Missions Conference of North America, $425,000.
Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, pensions for dependent widows and families, $200,000.
National Committee for Mental Hygiene, $42,800.
New York Bureau of Municipal Research, $120,000.
Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research, $1,150,304.
Johns Hopkins University, for a school of hygiene and public health, $267,000.
Infantile paralysis relief, $75,000.
International Health Board outlays, to the last compilation of returns, $1,121,585.

Islands, China and Queensland. Demonstrations in the control of malaria were continued in Arkansas and Mississippi, and arrangements were made for extending the program to eight other Southern states.

A systematic organization for combating tuberculosis in France was widened to include 21 departments. A modern medical school under the Rockefeller auspices opened its doors in Pekin; premedical schools were aided in Changhai, Shanghai and Nankin; medical courses were supported in Tsinan; 11 hospitals in various parts of China were aided. "Co-operation was continued in the maintenance of an institution of hygiene in Sao Paulo University in Brazil. A school of hygiene and public health at Johns Hopkins University was entirely supported by foundation funds. Fellowships in American university centers were granted to 75 students of medicine and public health from China, Brazil, Salvador, Czechoslovakia and the United States. Continuing studies of public health and medical education, officers of the foundation made special visits to the Far East, Europe, Canada and South America.

Work Done in China.
The China Medical Board of the foundation seeks to aid the agencies which represent Western medicine in China to make steady progress toward higher standards and more efficient service.

In fulfilling a purpose to promote modern medical education in the Far East, the board recognizes the following essential elements: (1) Premier hospitals; (2) undergraduate courses for physicians; (3) graduate workers, teachers and clinical specialists; (4) short courses for private practitioners and missionary doctors, both foreign and Chinese; (5) medical research, especially with reference to the problems peculiar to the Far East; (6) training centers for internists, as headquarters for practicing physicians and as means of popular education; (7) organized efforts to diffuse among the Chinese a knowledge

Head of May Stores Says Merchants Can Remedy Situation, as Plants Are Closing for Want of Orders.

CONCERTED SPRING BUYING URGED

Foreign Eyes See Country's Position as More Menacing Than It Really Is, as Result of Sensational Stories, Observer Says.

By LINCOLN EYRE

A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

ROME, Oct. 15.—Italy's principal need is a press agent. She needs many other things, some of them very badly; but since most of them cannot be obtained until the country's condition is pictured in a more cheerful light abroad, a promoter of favorable publicity is the first requirement.

In other words, Italy's recovery from the economic ailments caused by the war, and from which she has been a greater sufferer, perhaps, than any other victorious nation, is largely dependent upon the "front" she presents to the rest of the world. At present foreign eyes see her position as far darker and more menacing than it really is. Consequently foreign capital, disinclined to risk its money on a country whose future is so uncertain, is reluctant to be invested safely and almost as profitably at home, gives Italy the cold shoulder.

And what is still worse, Italian investors of long standing are being withdrawn by scared foreign holders—scared because American and British capitalists, sitting in Wall street or Lombard street, lack an accurate and comprehensive visualization of what is happening in Milan and Turin and Genoa and Naples and Rome. Sensational newspaper stories, made possible by the Italian Government's reticence, and reinforced by tales of travelers thrown into a panic by the sight of red flags flying over factory roofs, lead the traditionally timid money lender to imagine Italy a helpless prey to Bolshevism, and, therefore, beyond the capitalist's pale.

Blame French Papers.
The Italians realize all this very clearly. What they fail to realize is that the fault in permitting this exaggerated idea of their country's trouble to take root abroad is primarily their own. Instead of energetically essaying to counteract falsehoods about conditions here by international and dignified dissemination of facts and figures, they go about denouncing the "foreign press conspiracy" which is maligning their fair fame.

Another sensible Italian business man, who spends most of his time in New York and whom I met at a tea party given by the American Embassy, informed me that the "three well-known American papers" had been bribed by French interests to "conduct a campaign of slander" against Italy. He had seen the proofs, he said. My suggestion of publication, however, did not meet with his approval. The time had not yet come for that, he intimated mysteriously.

Whether this charge, and many others of the same kind, be true or untrue, the idea that powerful political influences, notably in France, guarantee prices up to the time the merchandise is delivered.

If the retailers withhold their orders until January or February, May argued, the manufacturers would be flooded with orders, and abnormal prices would result. He said individual establishments could do little toward inaugurating the policy he proposed, and that manufacturers, wholesale merchants and bankers must co-operate in a general movement.

Speakers, touching on the matter of freight rates, urged extensive buying of goods in St. Louis by retailers, to guarantee the payment of freight on goods from the East. Several of the retailers said they would give more attention to home buying, and would canvass the St. Louis market before sending buyers East.

Midwestern Promise to Obey.
By the Associated Press.
ANAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 23.—The officers of the Naval Academy, through the class president, have given a promise to Supt. Soles that they will obey the regulations of the institution to the best of their ability. Admiral Soles promptly took steps to lift the order segregating the members of the "plebe" or fourth class, as a precaution against any further cases of hazing.

It still remains extremely difficult, however, to get the Italian Government's views on any question of the moment. For 10 days I reported the industrial conflict at Milan and other northern cities. News of this struggle was readily obtainable from the labor organizations, who were anxious to explain and justify the workers' seizure of factories; on the manufacturing side there was almost equal willingness to talk.

But the Government, whose version was most important of all for foreign consumption, maintained an insurmountable silence. No Government official deigned to say a word to the foreign correspondents about events that were leading public opinion throughout the world to wonder whether the King and his Ministers were about to abdicate in favor of the dictatorship of the proletariat.

Might Have Set Feet at Rest.
And yet the Government easily could have set its feet at rest.

The Italians realize all this very clearly. What they fail to realize is that the fault in permitting this exaggerated idea of their country's trouble to take root abroad is primarily their own. Instead of energetically essaying to counteract falsehoods about conditions here by international and dignified dissemination of facts and figures, they go about denouncing the "foreign press conspiracy" which is maligning their fair fame.

Another sensible Italian business man, who spends most of his time in New York and whom I met at a tea party given by the American Embassy, informed me that the "three well-known American papers" had been bribed by French interests to "conduct a campaign of slander" against Italy. He had seen the proofs, he said. My suggestion of publication, however, did not meet with his approval. The time had not yet come for that, he intimated mysteriously.

Whether this charge, and many others of the same kind, be true or untrue, the idea that powerful political influences, notably in France, guarantee prices up to the time the merchandise is delivered.

If the retailers withhold their orders until January or February, May argued, the manufacturers would be flooded with orders, and abnormal prices would result. He said individual establishments could do little toward inaugurating the policy he proposed, and that manufacturers, wholesale merchants and bankers must co-operate in a general movement.

Speakers, touching on the matter of freight rates, urged extensive buying of goods in St. Louis by retailers, to guarantee the payment of freight on goods from the East. Several of the retailers said they would give more attention to home buying, and would canvass the St. Louis market before sending buyers East.

ANAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 23.—The officers of the Naval Academy, through the class president, have given a promise to Supt. Admiral Soles promptly took steps to lift the order segregating the members of the "plebe" or fourth class, as a precaution against any further cases of hazing.

It still remains extremely difficult, however, to get the Italian Government's views on any question of the moment. For 10 days I reported the industrial conflict at Milan and other northern cities. News of this struggle was readily obtainable from the labor organizations, who were anxious to explain and justify the workers' seizure of factories; on the manufacturing side there was almost equal willingness to talk.

But the Government, whose version was most important of all for foreign consumption, maintained an insurmountable silence. No Government official deigned to say a word to the foreign correspondents about events that were leading public opinion throughout the world to wonder whether the King and his Ministers were about to abdicate in favor of the dictatorship of the proletariat.

FAVORABLE PUBLICITY IS ITALY'S GREATEST NEED IN EFFORT TO CURE AILMENTS

Foreign Eyes See Country's Position as More Menacing Than It Really Is, as Result of Sensational Stories, Observer Says.

By LINCOLN EYRE

A Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

ROME, Oct. 15.—Italy's principal need is a press agent. She needs many other things, some of them very badly; but since most of them cannot be obtained until the country's condition is pictured in a more cheerful light abroad, a promoter of favorable publicity is the first requirement.

In other words, Italy's recovery from the economic ailments caused by the war, and from which she has been a greater sufferer, perhaps, than any other victorious nation, is largely dependent upon the "front" she presents to the rest of the world. At present foreign eyes see her position as far darker and more menacing than it really is. Consequently foreign capital, disinclined to risk its money on a country whose future is so uncertain, is reluctant to be invested safely and almost as profitably at home, gives Italy the cold shoulder.

And what is still worse, Italian investors of long standing are being withdrawn by scared foreign holders—scared because American and British capitalists, sitting in Wall street or Lombard street, lack an accurate and comprehensive visualization of what is happening in Milan and Turin and Genoa and Naples and Rome. Sensational newspaper stories, made possible by the Italian Government's reticence, and reinforced by tales of travelers thrown into a panic by the sight of red flags flying over factory roofs, lead the traditionally timid money lender to imagine Italy a helpless prey to Bolshevism, and, therefore, beyond the capitalist's pale.

Blame French Papers.
The Italians realize all this very clearly. What they fail to realize is that the fault in permitting this exaggerated idea of their country's trouble to take root abroad is primarily their own. Instead of energetically essaying to counteract falsehoods about conditions here by international and dignified dissemination of facts and figures, they go about denouncing the "foreign press conspiracy" which is maligning their fair fame.

MORE POLITICAL JOBS IN COUNTY ARE IN PROSPECT

Passing of 100,000 Mark in Population May Create Four New Places on Election Board.

COUNTY COUNSELOR
MORE THAN LIKELY

Governor Will Appoint Additional Election Commissioners If Legislature Passes Registration Bill.

Four and possibly five jobs with salaries of probably $3000 each are in prospect for St. Louis County politicians since the county has passed the 100,000 mark in population. The 1920 census gives it 106,737.

The jobs are two and possibly four members of a Board of Election Commissioners, the State Constitution requiring that there shall be registration of voters in all counties of more than 100,000, and a County Counselor. The Governor will appoint the Election Commissioners if the board be created by the Legislature, and the County Court will name the County Counselor. Fred Esen, Republican boss of the county, is expected to influence the appointments for all the jobs.

While the new patronage has not been widely discussed in county political circles, such talk as there has been has indicated that J. H. Klasko, an assistant Prosecuting Attorney, probably will be County Counselor, and William Shields, a member of the County Court, and J. H. McAttee, a lawyer, are among the possibilities discussed for members of the Board of Election Commissioners. All are supporters of Esen. Morris Cronin, a plumber, of Kirkwood, is talked of as a Democratic member of the Election Board. He is affiliated with the Al Bruce Democratic faction.

It is possible that friction will develop between St. Louis politicians and Esen over the Election Board. The appointments of the fact that the Tenth Congressional District includes St. Louis County and part of St. Louis city.

While the Koeln-Forstel faction, which is expected to be stronger in the county, it is not unlikely that Esen and the Forstel-Koeln faction in St. Louis will agree on the men to be named. Esen has been considered closer to the Koeln-Schmoll than the Forstel-Koeln faction, but he has generally kept out of the election.

Hyde is under obligations to the Forstel-Koeln interests for support in the primary and in the election, to Esen for support in both contests for support in the election. The latter obligation is not thought to be very binding, however, as the Koeln-Schmoll faction fought him bitterly in the primary. It was not until after he was nominated that it began to cultivate him. When Hyde was campaigning in St. Louis shortly before the election, Mayor Kiel, the Forstel-Koeln faction, and others of the fact were said to have given him little time to himself.

One politician said Goldstein "got Hyde up in the morning" and Kiel "time he was in the bed" all the time he was in the bed.

If a registration bill passed for St. Louis County by the next Legislature it will be the only county in the State, except Jackson, containing Kansas City, and the County Court will have to make additional jobs.

Richard F. Ralph, Senator-elect from the county, said today that he would introduce the registration bill, and that it was his present intention to provide for two Election Commissioners, one Republican and one Democrat. He refused to discuss probable appointments.

Esen said he supposed the Governor would consult the Senator from the county regarding the appointments. Ralph was the Esen candidate against Senator A. L. Gardner for the nomination for Senator in the primary.

MAN SLAIN IN OFFICE WITH AN IRON WRENCH

Philadelphia Police Seeking Man and Woman in the Case.

By the Associated Press. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Local authorities today continued their investigation into the death of Henry T. Peirce, Eastern manager of the Insley Manufacturing Co., whose body with the head crushed by blows from an iron wrench, was found yesterday in the rear of his office here. They have succeeded in tracing his movements up to 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, but with this exception, little progress has been made toward a solution of the mystery.

The condition of the body indicated, according to the police, that he was killed late Saturday night or early Sunday. A number of bottles and two glasses, one half filled with whiskey, were found on the table over which the body lay.

Irene Peirce, widow of the slain man, said she was warned Sunday night in a dream that her husband was in trouble. "My dream seemed to foreshadow the tragedy," said Mrs. Peirce, "and I was trying to warn my husband of danger when I awoke."

The police are looking for a man and woman, whom Peirce is said by a business acquaintance to have picked up in the center of the city Saturday night and driven to his office in his automobile. This man said he left the trio when they entered Peirce's office and that the man and woman were unknown to him.

Peirce's automobile was seen wandering in front of his office as late as midnight Saturday, but the police have not been able to find anyone who saw it taken away. The car is missing and it is believed the slayer or slayers drove off in it. Several theories are advanced by the officials as to the motive for the killing. One of these is robbery. Diamonds and other jewelry and cash, which Peirce was known to carry, are missing. Another theory is that he was killed through jealousy, and that the robbery was accomplished in order to cover up the real motive. Peirce was 45 years old. He left a widow and five children, all boys.

F. L. RAND PLEADS FOR KEEPING NATURE IN PUBLIC PARKS

Instead of spending it in the destruction of that which is already in its possession.

"It must be that the citizens do not realize the value of the native woodland of the parks; otherwise they would demand its preservation. Very true, some find more pleasure in looking at pavements than they do in looking at a grove of crab apples in full blossom. Pavements are increasing in Des Moines; crab apple groves are decreasing. Let the crab apple blossom lovers keep some of the thickets for their pleasure. They can appreciate also the pavements and the well-kept lawns. Don't thoughtlessly destroy that which gives so much pleasure to the nature lover. There is room enough in the Des Moines parks for the formal gardens, picnic grounds, the golf links and the wild woodland. Let us have all."

Many of the larger cities to the north and to the east of us have been rudely awakened in this growing movement for the preservation and conservation of the natural resources and beauties of our parks, and are making strenuous to repair and rebuild the destruction wrought in years gone by. Nature was in a most pleasing mood when she bestowed on us our Forest Park; would we think of changing the name of our park by removing the "forest" from it? Then why destroy the natural beauty of the park itself, which gives to the park its name? Let St. Louis, while not too late, conserve in every possible way the woodland beauty of its parks. If not too late, that which has been marked for destruction, let us retain.

A Wonderful Food That Saves You Money

RICE properly cooked is equal in deli-ciousness by no other food. It is correctly cooked when every grain is fluffy and plump and tender and standing alone. Then, eat it as you do potatoes, with gravy or butter on it.
There's a real dish.

Eat rice and save money. It is the most economical food you can serve. One cupful makes enough for a family of five. There are dozens of tasty dishes to make with leftover rice. None is ever wasted.

ASSOCIATED RICE MILLERS OF AMERICA, Inc., New Orleans, La.

The Southern Master Recipe

This recipe is so simple that by following it any person can successfully cook rice, southern style, the first time they try.

Wash rice thoroughly in a strainer. Use a deep porcelain or agate-ware kettle.
To four cups of boiling water add one level teaspoonful of salt. Then add one cup of washed rice so slowly that water continues to boil. Lift rice occasionally with fork, and shake kettle so that no kernels stick to bottom. But—this is important—never stir the rice. Boil twenty minutes. Then pour water off, if any, and place in open oven where it will finish swelling without burning. Each grain will stand alone, plump, tender and delicious.

Consult any standard, cook book for a number of excellent recipes for rice.

Here are a few others.

RICE BORDER WITH MEATS

Press hot boiled rice into buttered cups to half full; let cool; slip from the cups and pour over it the following sauce. Rub together two tablespoonfuls of butter and four. Melt in a saucepan without burning. Add this by degrees to the gravy from the meat and let boil three minutes, adding juice of lemon if desired. Pour the sauce over the rice border and serve.

FRICASSEE OF CHICKEN AND RICE

Cut into joints a fine, fat chicken, season with salt and pepper mixed. Put in a deep iron saucepan a spoon of lard, and when boiling hot put in a chicken and fry to a light brown.
Remove chicken and add a sifted heaping tablespoon of flour.
Stir constantly, and when a light brown add an onion previously chopped fine. Brown carefully and then add a tablespoonful of minced parsley, 1/2 clove of garlic minced, a crushed bay leaf.
If tomato is used add one chopped fine at this time. Return the chicken and let all stew together for ten minutes, adding a teaspoon of butter if desired. Now add a pint and a half of hot water and let simmer for an hour or until chicken is tender.
Serve with rice.

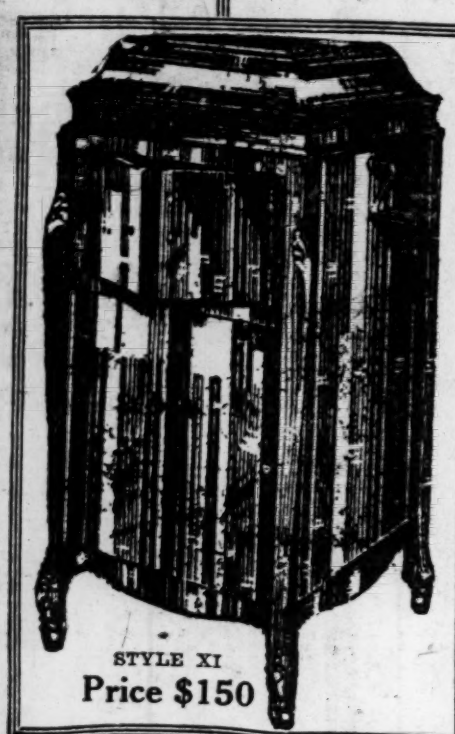

RICE CURRY

One can of tomatoes, six tablespoonfuls of rice, one onion,
salt, white pepper and one tablespoonful of butter. Put the butter in a sauce, grate into it the onion, add the liquor of the tomatoes, rice and seasoning (salt, pepper and curry powder). Simmer for about an hour on the back of the stove.

ITALY SUFFERS BEFORE WORLD FOR LACK OF GOOD ADVERTISING

years ago were fighting for their lives. And my experience was that of all foreign travelers with whom I came into contact.

Mythical Brigandage.

The much talked of brigandage wave by Italy resolves itself, so far as I can learn, into a widespread tendency toward petty theft. It is decidedly unsafe to leave the door of one's hotel bedroom unlocked, and umbrellas not kept under constant surveillance are apt to disappear. But of the bands of brigands allegedly infesting the countryside, and the footpads and highway robbers about city streets after dark, I could find scarcely a trace.

I myself often was out comparatively late at night, both in town and in the country, and saw not a sign of these desperate criminals. Motor-ing, I had been told, was particularly perilous. Yet one beholds automobiles all over the country, and none of the numerous motorists with whom I talked had ever been bothered by bandits—save those who lurk in garages and provincial hotels.

Of course, cars are not popular with the poorer classes, who regard their occupants as war profiteers and sometimes tell them so with disconcerting bluntness. There have even been cases where children in villages have thrown stones at passing motorists. This not uncommon juvenile pastime, however, scarcely constitutes that brigandage of which so much has been heard and so little seen.

Americans "Not So Bad."

As for Italians hating foreigners, it is quite true that little love is lost between Italy and such nations as France, Jugoslavia, Greece and Austria—to name only those most cordially disliked in this country. But that does not mean that citizens of those nations are badly treated here. The extreme nationalists among the Italians may give them a cold eye. Otherwise, however, they have nothing to complain of.

Americans, on the other hand, are perhaps the least antipathetic of all foreign races to the average Italian—although their President is universally detested. Italian public opinion seems to think that the American people are not in agreement with Mr. Wilson as regards his views on European peace, and consequently argues that Americans are not so bad after all. A year ago the embassy in Rome received frequent complaints about Americans being insulted, but latterly such cases have become extremely rare. I myself invariably was treated with delightful courtesy, and I never heard of anybody who was not.

Tourists Made to Pay Well.

Of course all tourists, Americans most of all, are pitilessly "gouged" by Italian hotels and shopkeepers. No resident would dream of paying the prices blantly demanded of foreigners. The Italian claims, however, are not without justification, that with the lire worth about 4 cents, instead of 20, it is only just that the prosperous traveler from the United States should pay more than the impoverished native.

I have sought to brush away certain mistaken conceptions of conditions in Italy—conceptions which hamper Italian economic development in general and the immensely profitable tourist trade in particular. In connection with the latter, it is necessary to add only that tourists in Italy today find the same abundant, interesting and beautiful sights to see, and virtually the same means for seeing them, as they did before the war.

PLEASED WITH GREEK ELECTIONS

Queen Marie Also Happy at Engagement of Her Son.

By the Associated Press.

LUCERNE, Switzerland, Nov. 23.—Queen Marie of Rumania, in conversation with the Associated Press yesterday expressed great satisfaction over the Greek elections. She said she was extremely happy at the engagement of her son, Crown Prince Charles, to Princess Helene of Greece and indicated that such an alliance will affect favorably the relations between Greece and Rumania.

Queen Marie did not look for any difficulties between the Entente and Greece, but remarked several times: "I don't want to discuss policies," adding later: "They all accuse me of being a business woman. I am merely representing my people and I am doing the best I can for them."

WHEN the children come home from school, give them a cup of this tasty, invigorating bouillon. Just what they need between meals.

SUCCESSOR TO ELDER NOT YET AGREED UPON

Koeln-Foristel Faction Switches
Its Support Back to Harry
E. Sprague.

The Koeln-Foristel faction in Republican politics, having failed to arouse sufficient interest in Blodgett Priest to obtain for him the election by the Thirty-second District Republican Senatorial Committee for the nomination for State Senator to fill the unexpired term of Senator Conway Elder, Supreme Judge-elect, has returned to Harry E. Sprague, its first choice, and is now exerting every influence to obtain his election.

Priest occupies an office in the same suite with Edward W. Foristel, and announcement of Priest's candidacy was taken by politicians as assurance that he had the Foristel-Koeln support. Several Koeln committeemen, however, were pledged to Sprague, who is equally acceptable to the Foristel-Koeln forces, and it was found virtually impossible to get them away from their pledges.

Four Votes for Sprague.

It seems probable that Sprague will have at least four of the eight votes on the Senatorial Committee, and the fight is on to obtain the necessary one more. The other four committeemen, however, are closely associated with the Koeln-Schmoll faction, and difficulty may be had in obtaining even one of them.

The Koeln-Schmoll objection to Sprague is largely due to the fact that he was one of the Executive Committee of the house-cleaning organization, which opposed the "Courtship Ring" candidates for Circuit Judges in the primary, and also aided in the general Republican house-cleaning. There is nothing to indicate that Sprague opposed the "Three K's" in the general election, but the fight he made in the primary is held by the Koeln-Schmoll politicians to have had an effect in the general election.

Sprague's political record in St. Louis County also is being used against him with the Koeln-Schmoll committeemen, who were "regulars" back in 1912 when the Progressive party was formed. Circular letters have been issued anonymously calling attention to the fact that Sprague was the Progressive nominee for Prosecuting Attorney in St. Louis County in 1912, and withdrew after a fusion agreement had been entered into, and that as a result a Democrat was elected Prosecuting Attorney.

Other Charges in Circular.

It also is stated in the circular that in 1916 Sprague accepted the support of Fred Essen, Republican boss in the county, when he was a candidate for member of the Legislature, and that after Senator Gardner, a political opponent of Essen, had obtained for him election as Republican floor leader of the House, Sprague turned against Essen. Sprague's record as a house cleaner also is mentioned.

Senator Elder is expected to resign from the Senate soon after the official announcement of his election to the Supreme Court, and Gov. Gardner will call a special election to fill the vacancy. The Senatorial Committee then will choose the nominee.

Two Sentenced for Deserting Child.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

POPULAR BLUFF, Mo., Nov. 22.—Roy Bolen, 50 years old, and his niece, Georgia Bolen, pleaded guilty yesterday to the charge of child abandonment and each was sentenced to two years in prison. The young woman acknowledged that she is the mother of the child that was found early on the morning of Sept. 10, in a basket, on the doorstep of the home of Dr. A. R. Rowe. The child was taken into the home of Ward Hendrickson, a policeman, and was adopted a short time ago. The Bolen girl said a Kansas man was the father.

Reliable

IN these times reliability deserves tribute and co-operation and smokers everywhere have given generously of both to R-B cigars.

R-B's have kept faith in quality and workmanship ever since they first became popular. They are still the same good cigar with the imported Sumatra wrapper, full-flavored, long-leaf filler in Londres shape for easier draught.

And the same reliable system of distribution gets them to every R-B dealer in the United States in A1 condition.

The R-B square deal policy is the dictator here; so when it came to the price question R-B Londres were held down to their reliable 8-cents each. You can depend on it.

ARBUCKLE CHARMING IN A CHRISTMAS PLAY

Women Stand to Cheer Him
When He Appears for Speech in New York.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Hearts that have not grown old will be touched by a simple little play called "Daddy Dimples," presented for the first time last night at the Republic Theater, in which a kind old man, some poor little waifs and the spirit of Christmas figure.

Earl Carroll and George Barr Meacham could have offered something a great deal more flashy and attractive but they have struck a new note of wholesomeness, charity, love of home and parentless children of the streets in this new comedy-drama.

"Daddy Dimples," played by Macklyn Arbuckle, the jolly old fellow with the Santa Claus voice, has fallen heir to a fortune, so he collects a little family of orphans and abandoned children in his fine home. Among them is a pretty girl, Florence, the daughter of the only woman he ever loved. This part is taken by Florence Flynn. An act in which the girl's father wrecks the home through a legal transaction and drives "Daddy Dimples" into the street follows. The girl is taken abroad by her father, but a young attorney who has fallen in love with her intercedes and obtains employment and lodging for "Daddy Dimples."

On a later Christmas eve, in the kitchen of a cheap New York apartment, the girl returns, with news of the death of her father and her inheritance. The little ones are gathered again to "Daddy Dimples' home from the charitable institutions and they proceed with their Christmas carol, while the young woman and the young attorney meet again. The butler and the maid even are married. And the old man and his "kiddies" are happy again.

Arbuckle's performance is faithful and sincere. He could not have hugged and coddled his own grandchildren more to the liking of the opening night audience. When he responded to a demand for a speech after the second act, women stood up to cheer him.

AMERICANS AIDING RUSSIAN REFUGEES IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Thousands Being Held on Ships Now at Anchor in the Bosphorus.

By the Associated Press.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 23.—Measures to bring relief to the thousands of Russian refugees held on ships now at anchor in the Bosphorus have been started by allied representatives in this city. Rear Admiral Mark L. Bristol, commanding American naval forces operating in Turkish waters, has, with Mrs. Bristol, organized a series of teas at the United States embassy for the purpose of raising funds for the Russians. Tens of thousands of subscriptions have been received from the people of Constantinople, all elements joining in the work.

The French camp and barracks near here have been turned over, in part, to the refugees, and the British military authorities have been providing rations for these people. The situation of the refugees was made more uncomfortable by a pelting rainstorm yesterday.

BLACK-DRAUGHT AS A PREVENTIVE

When You Begin Feeling Bad
With Feverishness, Headache, Cold or Constipation, Give Your Liver a Tonic—Take Black-Draught.

Candler, N. C.—"I don't believe there is a better medicine made than Black Draught; I have used it and my mother's folks used it for colds, feverishness, headache and deranged liver." This statement recently was made by Mr. C. B. Trull, a well-known farmer on Route 8, this place.

"I have, before now, begun feeling dull, a headache would come on, and I would feel all full of cold, and take a few doses of Black-Draught and get all right," adds Mr. Trull.

"Last year my brother had measles, flu and pneumonia. They wired us; I went to Camp Jackson to look him up. Down there different ones were using preventives. I stayed with him. The only thing I used was Black-Draught. It kept my system cleansed and I kept well and strong."

By keeping your liver and stomach in good order, you stand in little danger of catching serious ills that occasionally spread through town and country.

Get a package of Black-Draught and have it ready for the first symptom of a disordered liver. Most druggists sell Black-Draught.

MORRIS COMPANY FILES SALE PLAN FOR STOCK YARDS

Would Offer All Holdings in Yards First to Livestock
Producers and the General Public.

STOCK IN TERMINAL
ROADS ALSO LISTED

Offer in Compliance With Court Decree Separate
From That of Other Big Packers Affected.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Plans for the sale of the interest of Morris & Co. packers, in stockyards and terminal roads, in such a manner as to permit their acquisition by livestock producers and the general public will be filed today in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia at Washington, the packers announced. None of the other packers is a party to the plan or mentioned in it.

Interests which it is supposed to offer to the court under the plan are: Kansas City Stockyard Co., Kansas City, Kan.; St. Joseph Stockyards Co., St. Joseph, Mo.; St. Louis National Stockyards, East St. Louis, Ill.; Oklahoma National Stockyards and Slaughter House, Ltd., New Orleans, La.; El Paso Union Stockyards Co., El Paso, Tex.; New York Stockyards Co., New York.

Terminal Roads Listed.
Capital stock in four stockyard terminal railroads is listed. These lines for the most part are operated in connection with the Kansas City East St. Louis, Oklahoma City and St. Joseph, Mo., plants and yards named.

The proffer is in compliance with the decree made mandatory Feb. 27, 1920, by the signature of Chief Justice McCoy and filed by Attorney General Palmer, with the concurrence of the 37 corporations and 49 individuals of which the Swift, Armour, Morris, Wilson and Cudahy interests were the principal members.

Morris & Co. offers a separate and individual plan by which all its capital stock holdings in stockyards and terminal companies are surrendered. If adopted, it is declared, the plan will immediately divorce Morris & Co. from all stockyards and terminals and the livestock producers will be given first opportunity to acquire them.

Edward Morris, president of the company, said that these holdings could not be disposed of at present because of the financial situation, and that the Morris interests had suggested to the court that all their capital stock in yards and terminal companies be immediately surrendered and canceled and other certificates issued in lieu thereof in the name of some trust company, as trustee, to hold and vote the stock until it can be sold to people outside the packing industry.

To Sell All Stock.
They also agree immediately to resign all positions with the stockyards and terminal companies. The capital stock will then be disposed of by offering it first to the livestock men, then to people living near the various plants, to common carriers and finally to the general public. Such stock as has not been disposed of within a limited time may be offered by the court at public auction.

Morris said it was in the interest of both producers and the consuming public that these properties should be managed and controlled by people interested in and identified with the industry. He expressed the hope that livestock men will avail themselves of the opportunity to get the yards. Morris & Co., he said, entered into the agreement with the Attorney-General and made mandatory by the court, in good faith and proposes to carry out and observe the decree accordingly.

Why Not This Finer Hosiery Service in Your Home Store

FEW men pretend to know much about fabric and weave.

Clothes they buy with certainty because accepted standard brands are to be had everywhere—and the merchants carrying these brands are known all over town.

Why not the same service in Hosiery?

Why the mixed stocks in the average store—the odd lots and medley of brands?

The merchant should visualize the buying needs and wishes of the busy man of today.

He should know that thousands of dealers have already standardized their Hosiery stock—to the great satisfaction of their customers and the consequent benefit of their own good will.

A Candle for Bond Bread—and two birthday gifts for you

THIS week celebrates Bond Bread's first birthday. But Bond Bread prefers to give rather than to receive.

So Bond Bread offers you two gifts in celebration of this week one year ago when local housewives submitted 2,315 loaves of home-made bread to be used as patterns for Bond Bread.

Bond Bread's first Birthday gift to you can not be weighed or measured or tested—any more than you can weigh the chuckle of a child or the fragrance of a rose.

For Bond Bread's First Gift is Gratitude—heart-felt thanks to the housewives, who are its foster mothers—to the boys and girls—to the fathers and mothers who have made Bond Bread a part of their homes.

Bond Bread is so named because each loaf bears this bond of the General Baking Company.

Bond Bread's Second Gift to you is a gift that can be weighed—that can be measured and seen and tested. This gift is Quality. It means this:

Each loaf will continue to contain a little better, a little purer, and a little costlier ingredients, a little higher degree of baking skill than you ever thought possible except in the very, very best home-made bread.

Bond Bread will continue to deserve its leadership—continue to justify the Bond—printed on every wrapper.

That Bond guarantees that each ingredient is as pure and wholesome as you ever used in your own home—and that no substitutes of any kind are used in Bond Bread.

Bond Bread

Made as the Housewives showed us

Bond Bread's fascinating story

Nov. 15, 1919 "What kind of bread do you and your families like to eat?" We asked the women of St. Louis and vicinity.

Nov. 22, 1919 2,315 women of St. Louis and vicinity responded by bringing their own loaves of delicious home-made bread to be used as models for the new Bond Bread.

A committee of prominent local women selected the prize loaves from this mountain of home-made bread.

Nov. 23, 24, 25 Skillful bakers worked day and night in our clean, sanitary bakeries to copy the appearance, taste, texture and wholesomeness of those beautiful prize loaves of home-made bread.

Nov. 26, 1919 The new Bond Bread Process at last perfected, Bond Bread, (so-named because the purity of each home ingredient is guaranteed by our Bond) was given to the public who eagerly awaited it.

Nov. 22, 1920 Today, thousands upon thousands of St. Louis families help to celebrate Bond Bread's first birthday.

Robbers Also Relieve Attorney of $7 and Watch—Grocery
Manager Robbed.

Fred Feigel of 4408 South Grand avenue, manager of a Kroger grocery at 2200 South Twelfth street, was closing the store at 6 o'clock last night when two men entered, and pointing revolvers at him, ordered him to put up his hands and face the wall. They took $15 from the cash register and escaped.

Robert Forness of 3715 Clarence avenue, an attorney, was held up by two men at Taylor and Grand avenues at 5:15 p. m., and robbed of $7.65, a watch, diamond pin and a bronze insignia bearing the inscription "Army of Occupation."

Tailor Hit on Head in Shop.
A negro called at the tailor shop of David Blaszyk, 6 North Thirteenth street, at 4:15 p. m., and asked to be shown some overcoat material. When Blaszyk reached for a piece of goods on a shelf the negro hit him on the head with an iron bar. Blaszyk called for help and the negro ran. Blaszyk suffered a cut on the scalp.

Charles Dieter of 1945 Dodder street was robbed of $19 by two men at Twentieth and Benton streets at 8:30 p. m.

August H. Blumenhorst, who lives on the North and South road, near the Olive Street road, and has a bakery at 217 Goodfellow avenue, informed the police yesterday that a man whom he permitted to ride with him on the Clayton road at 5:30 a. m. yesterday held him up at the point of a revolver and took $32 from him.

Whisky Stolen From Drug Store.
Burglars in the drug store of Victor Piech, 6118 Easton avenue, early yesterday, stole 98 pints of whisky, perfumes, cigars and drugs, all valued at $1100. They also carried out $60 worth of powders and left them at the rear of the store, preparatory to carrying them away, but were apparently frightened from their purpose.

Clothing valued at $627 was stolen from the store of Robert Burns, 3309 Chouteau avenue, early yesterday. At the homes of Aaron Bashkow, 4734 Kensington avenue, and Mrs. Anna Vieski, 718 Marion street, burglars obtained $250 worth of jewelry and $100 cash.

INDICTMENT AGAINST STOCK SALESMAN IS DISMISSED

Complaining Witnesses Against Milton N. Golsen No Longer Desire to Prosecute.

An indictment charging Milton N. Golsen, 21 years old, a stock salesman, with obtaining money on false pretenses, was dismissed in court yesterday, when the attorney for the prosecuting witnesses notified the Circuit Attorney that his clients no longer desired to prosecute Golsen. They did not appear.

Leo J. Bayer, 3656 Lafayette avenue, president of the Bayer Steam Soot Blower Co., and C. A. Wasem, 2201 University street, assistant manager of the Liberty loan department of the First National Bank, caused Golsen's arrest June 26. Bayer said Golsen sold him stock in a corporation which he found later did not exist. He said he paid Golsen about $2000. Wasem said Golsen got $288.75 from him for stock. An indictment was voted by the September grand jury.

When the case was called for trial yesterday, Assistant Circuit Attorney O'Brien said he had received a letter from Bayer and Wasem stating that they no longer desired to prosecute, and the case was not pressed. At the time of his arrest, Golsen gave his address as the Westgate Hotel.

Charges Against Japanese Consul.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 22.—Five affidavits charging U. Oyama, Japanese Consul in Los Angeles, with anti-election political activities against the California anti-alien land law were forwarded from here yesterday by the Los Angeles County Anti-Alien Association to Norman H. Davis, acting Secretary of State at Washington.

HARDING INVITES REED TO LEAGUE CONFERENCE

Senator Pomerene and Shields, Democrats, Among Others Asked to Visit Marion.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Senators Reed of Missouri, Pomerene of Ohio and Shields of Tennessee, all Democrats, are among those invited by President-elect Harding to confer with him on the League of Nations issue and other matters after his return from Panama, according to Harry M. Daugherty, Harding's pre-convention campaign manager, who is in Washington.

Others asked to offer suggestions to the President-elect, Daugherty said, include Senators Borah, Johnson of California, Lodge, Knox, Poinsett and Daugherty thought, Herbert Hoover.

Informal conferences at Marion probably will begin about Dec. 10, Daugherty said, adding that no definite date had been set for anyone to go there.

"Some probably will go singly, while others may go in groups," Daugherty said. "There will be no pre-arranged schedule as to when different ones are to appear."

The President-elect plans to spend only a day in Washington after returning from Panama via Newport News, and will go immediately to Marion, Daugherty announced. He said Senator Harding expected to resign from the Senate soon after Jan. 1, when Governor-Elect Davis of Ohio takes office. Daugherty predicted that Senator-Elect Willis, a Republican, would be named to succeed Senator Harding.

INDIANS SEEK MISSING MINISTER

City Asked to Aid in Finding Pastor Missing for Year.

In a letter yesterday to Mayor Kiel the Society of American Indians, which held its annual convention here last week, asked the aid of the city in locating the Rev. "Black Hawk" George Rothmann, 24 years old, who has not been heard from for more than a year. Anyone finding the lost minister is asked to notify him to get in touch with 411 Forest avenue, Des Moines, Ia.

Enclosed with the letter to the Mayor was another to "all ministers of all churches," asking them also to aid in the search. The Rev. "Black Hawk" is described as having dark brown hair, dark eyes, Roman nose, fair complexion, and is about 5 feet 8 inches tall. He was a coworker with the Rev. Red Fox, who attended the convention here. The letter stated that it was believed the Rev. "Black Hawk" was ill in a hospital, and unable to communicate with his friends.

MAN WITH TWO WIVES FREED

Thomas Kennelly, 49 years old, of 1919 Hickory street, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of having married Miss Beatie Dardis of East St. Louis without having obtained a divorce from his first wife, Mrs. Mary Alton Kennelly of Sacramento, Cal., was released last night when the Circuit Attorney refused to entertain a charge of bigamy on the ground that since the alleged bigamous marriage, which took place in 1917, the statute of limitations, barring prosecution for bigamy, had expired.

Kennelly's daughter from his first marriage, Edna Kennelly, 16 years old, was turned over to her mother.

Spanish Volunteer Troops to Vilna.

By the Associated Press.

MADRID, Nov. 22.—Announcement is made that the detachment of Spanish marine infantry, which will go to Lithuania as a part of the allied force that will maintain order during the proposed plebiscite in that country, will be composed entirely of volunteers. It is said the men will be given special equipment, as Spanish troops are not accustomed to such cold as may be expected at Vilna.

GO HEAL THE SICK

This Man Is Leading Sick People Back to Health.
His Fight Against Old Age, Weakness and Disease.

Fifteen years ago H. H. Von Schlick of 210 Third Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa., was unknown. Today millions of happy people bless and praise him as a benefactor. They are grateful for new health and freedom from sickness and disease.

Mr. Von Schlick is now in the winter of life. He has a clear, healthy, sparkling eye and the skin and hair of youth. Twenty years ago he was old and out of shape.

Then Von Schlick met Boris Markoff, an old Bulgarian friend who gave him a Herb Tea. Von Schlick recovered his health. He was a new man in mind and body.

This Bulgarian Herb Tea was a great medicinal discovery for healing the sick. Von Schlick's friends and family are proud and proud for making this Bulgarian Herb Tea. The people, ladies, babies, babies and flowers grow in forests, fields, valleys and swamps and come from Europe, Asia and Africa.

The wonderful power in this Herb Tea regenerated the strength of the general body and purified the kidneys, sweetened the bowels and stomach and gave back the skin and hair that only a healthy person can have.

For years Von Schlick made this Tea and gave it to sick people. It helped everyone. The fame of this medicine began to travel. People came to him for it and he gave it free—until it hurt. Mr. Von Schlick was now very old and was unable to supply the general demand, as the herbs were very scarce, being imported from distant lands. Then someone told him to make it for the whole world to use, and today he believes he is doing more good for the world than any other medicine in the world.

Bulgarian Herb Tea today is used the world over and praised by millions of suffering people. It is a medicine of old age weaknesses. They include nervous building, loss of memory, loss of vitality, loss of strength, loss of health, loss of sleep, loss of appetite, loss of energy, loss of power, loss of life.

Up to the Seventh Round It Looked Like It Was Back to the Minors for Cole

Early Lead Gives Shannon a Shade Over Billy Cole

St. Louis Scores Knockdown in Eighth Round After Being Badly Beaten for Five.

Last Night's Results
Eddie Shannon, San Francisco, outpointed Billy Cole, St. Louis, in eight rounds. Weight 132 pounds.
Eddie Taylor, St. Louis, outpointed Ivan Candler, East St. Louis, in four rounds. Weight 145 pounds.
Jimmy Kerna, East St. Louis, outpointed Lawrence Mattman, St. Louis, four rounds. Weight 130 pounds.
Gus Whalen, St. Louis, outpointed Art Hanley, St. Louis, four rounds.
Two boxing masters met at the Army last night and such great did they display that the defense of each nullified the attacking prowess of the other and made of the first seven rounds a powderpuff boxing exhibition. Eddie Shannon, Pacific Coast and New England lightweight champion, piled up an enormous lead on points in the first five rounds, during which Billy Cole of St. Louis made scarcely a half dozen lands.
In the sixth round Cole began his return to the aggressive and for the first time in the bout gained an even break for a three-minute period. In the seventh, having discovered that he could pop away at Shannon without making a sudden journey into the land of Nod, Cole showed even greater power and won his first round.
Then came the three-minute period that enabled the Cole partisans to depart from the Army and instantly reclaiming their confidence that Billy had won the fight.
Cole rushed on Real Storm.
Cole puffed on his corner and landed a straight left to Shannon's chin. Shannon countered, but his left was a series of harmless brushes to the face from a near clinch position. Shannon stepped back to feint Cole into leading and Billy did. Billy didn't fall with his right, but he left Shannon sprawling back to the mat. His head appeared to be clear, but the blow had partly paralyzed his leg muscles and so he was unable to get into position to hold himself back to standing posture. Heisenberg, who was on the job as usual, had tolled off a count of two when Shannon regained his feet.
By this time the hitherto half-sleeping, half-dazed spectators had dropped their lethargy. A yelling, rapping, howling mob belovied, whistled and shrieked for Cole to finish the job. Nobody kept his seat.
Those who could forced to ring-side and tried to reach into the ring in their eagerness to get an ear from Cole, who was coolly trying to spot as opening for a finishing wallow. But Shannon was too quick to retaliate. So fast was his recovery that before the round ended Cole landed another vicious punch, this time with his right to the jaw. Without dazing the California mauler.

What's Your Point of View?
The fan who loves best the boxer who knocks his opponent for a home run would insist that Cole, having inflicted the greater punishment, having landed, in fact, the only blow that smacked of a sleep producer in the entire eight rounds, should be given the decision.
But Billy's hands were not tied during the first five rounds and the tremendous lead piled up during those stanzas by Shannon cannot be accounted. A fair point decision needs must go to Shannon.
It has been announced that Charley White of Chicago would meet the winner of last night's bout at the Army next Monday. Shannon will have to show more than he displayed last night to keep his feet where they belong against the harridan Chicagoan.
Shannon opened the first round with a series of lefts to Cole's face and Billy went through his rounds without making a single effective lead or counter. It was all Shannon's round, though no more damage was done than primary grade pugilism might do at 30 paces with spitballs.
Shannon got his right hand into action in the second round, landing three solid punches to Cole's head, without a return. In the clinches Shannon used the same snap uppercut with which he drew the claret from Lawler's proboscis in their recent bout. Cole was expecting the punch, but it came too fast for him to dodge. He countered with short straight right snaps to the Shannon mid-section.
Shannon After That Jaw.
Cole did open up a bit in the third round. He rushed from his corner into Shannon's, but found Eddie all set and ready. Cole landed a solid right to Shannon's body, but not in an area to cause any pain. Shannon apparently had heard that Cole had a glass jaw and was waiting for an opening in that direction.
The fourth was treacherous in its similarity to the preceding rounds. Shannon had made up his mind to make Cole lead and Cole was equally determined that he wouldn't do anything of the kind. When the arms started swinging the picture usually was of Shannon ducking clearly and planting a left on Cole's face. However, Shannon's blows lacked steam. The round ended with both

Old-Fashioned Football Has Met Its Final Waterloo, Camp Declares

Ohio's Spectacular Aerial Rallies, Snatching Last-Minute Victories, Illustrates Superiority of Open Game Over Old-Style Reliance on Straight Battering Attack.

By Walter Camp.
(Copyright, 1920.)
OLD-FASHIONED football has met its final Waterloo. The concentrated, old-fashioned drive with a small and confined radius has passed into the discard and the open play now dominates the gridiron field. No amount of explanation or argument can hold it longer in place. Any broad survey of the situation is so convincing in this respect as to make it futile to consider seriously those who continue along the formerly recognized standard.
For those who are only one or two of the big Eastern games it is worth while to paint a picture of the death of the old-time game that will tell the story better than would figures. This is easy to do by the simple substitution of names. Let us take the Harvard-Yale game and make the picture for the eighty-four thousand who watched that struggle in the Yale bowl and the countless thousands who followed the play through the medium of the newspapers. It is not necessary to go into details so far as the four periods of the game are concerned. Indeed, four minutes of play would be more than sufficient.
We will say that four minutes before the final whistle blew, the score stood 9 to 0 in favor of Harvard. Some of the great audience, believing the game over, have begun to seek the exits when Yale properly executes a series of forward passes, beautifully carried out by means of a suitable and fast man on the receiving end. She scores once, but misses goal, and the score is 9 to 6.
The referee says: "One minute to play."
Yes, It Can Be Done.
Harvard kicks off to Yale on the latter's 20-yard line. Yale makes one running play, which gains nothing. Against the resorts to the long forward pass. It is batted down by a Harvard back and the ball is returned to Yale's 20-yard line. Third down. Another long forward pass, placing the ball in midfield, is completed by Yale.
"Thirty seconds to play," announces the referee. First down. Yale goes back to formation and once more hurls the oval. Harvard, in desperation, has pulled back its men into the backfield, but still another pass goes sailing down 40 yards into the outstretched hands of a Yale player. He races over to a touchdown.
Can you imagine the picture of insanity in the Yale stands and the horror on the Harvard side? Well, this is all absolute facts, only you must substitute the name of Ohio for Harvard.

NEGRO COLLEGE ELEVEN HAS LOST BUT ONE GAME IN THE LAST 20 YEARS
ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 23.—End of the 1920 football season finds one Southern college with a record of only one defeat in 20 years. Morehouse College, a negro institution, lost game 19 years ago, but for 10 years prior to that time and since then the word "defeat" has been known at the school only as it applied to Morehouse's opponents.
Morehouse has played games annually with the leading negro teams of the South, including Tuskegee Institute, Atlanta University and Morris Brown.

Boxers unmarked except for a small row on Cole's forehead, caused probably by one of Shannon's near-clinch uppercuts.
Cole landed a good right to start the fifth round, but in an exchange a moment later Shannon evened the count. Cole then started his dangerous left swing. It landed on Shannon's body, not an inch too high. Heisenberg saw the blow and, while it landed in fair territory, he cautioned Cole that he was getting dangerously near to foul ground. The round then developed into another series of feints, with the bloodthirsty fans writhing in their seats.
Heisenberg demanded Action.
Heisenberg called the boxers to the center of the ring at the start of the sixth frame and pointed out wherein they had been making mistakes. He then pointed out that each was waiting too long for the other to lead. He said they were too willing to step into a clinch and told them each had missed chances to send in clean wallopers when they were in close. He exhorted them to get busy.
They started better in this round and Cole, as told before, landed enough to make the round even. Then came the seventh and eighth, as described.
The bout was what might have been expected of two highly developed boxers. English audiences, no doubt, would have voted the affair a great success, for better footwork, feinting and more neatly timed jabs would be hard to stage. Shannon's cool generalship, though it persisted until it marred the fight for the blood-thirsty, was admirable. He has a shift and a style that marks him as a master of the ring. Had Cole started sooner he might have proved his superiority over the master. But he waited too long.
In the semicircular Eddie Taylor and Ivan Candler, 145-pounds, wended their awkward way through four rounds. Taylor was the winner on points.
In the preliminaries Grub Whalen surprised by trimming Art Hanley, 145-pounds, in the first round. Another surprise, the boy with the whistle, outpointed Lawrence Mattman.

Basket Ball Meeting Tonight.
A meeting will be held tonight at Community Center, Grand and Vista avenues, for the coming season. All who are interested in this form of athletics are invited to attend.

Henry, Fullback of Billikens, Is Found Ineligible

St. Louis' Chief Line Smasher Is Barred on Charge of Professionalism.

St. Louis University's hopes for victory over Washington University at Francis Field, Thursday afternoon, received a hard blow last night when Fullback Tom Henry was declared ineligible to play Billikens varsity athletics. Henry was found guilty on a charge of professionalism.
An alumnus of the Pikeaway institution learned that the Illinoisan had played on the Rock Island (Ill.) semiprofessional team last year and has signed a contract to play with the same eleven for the remainder of this season.
The hilltop athletic department decided not to investigate the charges but to turn their information over to St. Louis U. authorities for them to take action. The Billikens athletic board met last night and asked Henry to turn in his paraphernalia when he admitted that the charges were correct.
Henry Chief Line Plunger.
This is the second blow to the Blue and White camp within a week. Last Saturday afternoon, Alvin Egger, substitute quarterback, suffered a broken arm in scrimmage. A great cry went up at this loss; but it is not to be compared with the absence of Henry. The fullback was the heaviest man behind the line and proved to be the only man who could gain between the two tackles in the games this season. Henry was also an excellent man in the secondary defense.
Washington authorities were pleased with the prompt action taken by the rival school; and this is certain to cement athletic relations. It is the second time since the dropping of the charges under indictment for participation in "throwing" the 1919 world's series. In 1915 the Billikens directors protected Touchstone, the Pike quarterback, the day before the big game, charging that he had received money for coaching Yeaman High School's eleven. The charges were dropped, and the man was barred from competition.
Both Sides Work Hard.
Coach Rademacher sent his players through their last heavy drill before the game yesterday. The "Billikens" worked at tackling and blocking for more than an hour and then held a long signal drill. Last night the squad assembled at the university for a blackboard talk.
The players went through a heavy scrimmage yesterday. The "Billikens" other on the program today. Coach Rider believes that his men are too overconfident and is doing everything to keep them from being the game. Although he has never seen a St. Louis U. team play against the "Billikens" he has seen them all sides the story of Billiken fight on Thanksgiving day.
Rider, Brown, Krache, Berger, Singler and Fickler, who are the "Billikens-Ole" game, carried the message of the super-defensive play up by the "Billikens" to the "Billikens" quite likely that spectators at Thursday's game will see plenty of smashing line play and a minimum of forward passing.
Members of the two squads will be guests of a West End theater tonight. The "Billikens" will be the "Billikens" and the "Billikens" will be the "Billikens". About 100 seats have been set aside for students who will engage in a cheering duel between performances.

STRANGLER LEWIS BEATS ZBYSKO IN MAT BOAT
NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis of Kentucky downed Wladek Zbyzsko of Poland with a furious flying headlock in 15. 2m. 45s. at the Seventy-first Regiment Armory last night in the opening of New York's wrestling season.
The last five minutes of the match were cyclonic. Up to that time neither man had any advantage to speak of. Lewis, with his headlock, had put Zbyzsko in dangerous positions several times, but the Pole had broken loose every once in a while and in turn had put Lewis in jeopardy with his famous toe hold and armlock. Lewis, however, the his Kentuckian had all kinds of trouble in breaking.
After an hour and 30 minutes of grueling work, Lewis managed to wrap his arm around the Pole's head for his favorite hold. Over they went onto the floor and it looked like the end of Wladek, but by a magnificent effort he got his feet under him and lifted Lewis clear from the mat. Then he turned over and again put on the lock, but this time Zbyzsko pulled loose and in turn caught Lewis' arm and took an offensive. Early turning Ed onto his shoulder, he close was he that George Rothner, the referee, went flat on the floor to untangle the Strangler's head from the Pole's. Lewis, who was on his hands and knees, circled him over his shoulders, and Zbyzsko struck the mat with a thud that could be heard in Broadway. He was stunned. His legs straightened and as they did they went into the air. MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

FOREVER AND EVER.

As long as the world rolls around on its axis,
As long as about it the blue heavens bend,
The public will ante the annual taxes
Which light-hearted grafters will joyfully spend.
We'll froth at the mouth when we hear how they spent 'em,
We'll call 'em a crooked, burglarious lot,
But will we rise up as one man to prevent 'em
From doing it over again? We will not!

Although now and then, in an access of fury,
When gyped out of most of our dearly earned kale,
We call in the aid of a special grand jury
In hope they will hasten the grafters to jail,
They don't go to jail; for their lawyers won't let 'em,
And, though they may dig up a fine now and then,
They usually stall till the people forget 'em,
Then back go their hands in our pockets again.

We have not a doubt that at this very minute
Some fat little graft has been planned to put through,
And none of the light-fingered gentlemen in it
Will ever meet up with the fate that's their due.
We'll learn all about it a year or two after
A few million dollars are stolen and spent,
But that will not worry the opulent grafter;
He'll keep right on grafting—it's us who'll repent.

Of course we'll get buffy and put up a holler;
Of course we will say it's a hideous shame
That twenty-five cents in the average dollar
Are all that we usually get in the game.
But will we permit such a thing to continue,
To let thieves and plunderers take from our till
The coin that we've earned with our muscle and sweat—
You'll win if you bet your last cent that we will!

EVER READY.

Perhaps if Mr. Harding will not take the job—in case Mr. Wilson follows Mr. Bryan's advice and resigns, Mr. Bryan can suggest the name of a man who will.

Private Blinks was incorrigible.

"Blinks," said the Captain sternly,
"you seem to like to whistle. I'll give you your chance. Stand there in the corner and whistle for one hour."

Private Blinks swung into the strains of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

"Your sentence is mitigated to five minutes," said the Captain, rising wearily to attention.—American Legion Weekly.
